CONFESSION OF SIN (Unison)

The psalmist said, “in your light we see light,” yet we often slip into the shadows, preferring the cover of darkness. Your word offers us guidance, yet we often choose to set out on our own and go it alone. You promise transformation and renewal, but we often cling instead to our interrupted lives because they are at least familiar.

Speak to us again from beyond the clouds of sin and alienation. Warm us with the shining light of Christ’s love. As you help us to see Jesus as He is, help us also to see ourselves as we are meant to be.
