PRAYER FOR REFLECTION

Deacon Kathie Gerlach

Gracious God, multiplier of all good gifts, everything we have comes from your gracious hand. Your power is at work in our world, transforming scarcity into abundance, and despair into hope. And so in our hunger we look to you.

Sustain us, we pray, so that we may have the strength to join you in feeding a world hungry for bread, starving for love, craving for reconciliation, longing for relationship, and yearning for redemption.

CALL TO WORSHIP (based on Ephesians 3: 17-21)

Deacon Kathie Gerlach

Leader: May Christ dwell in your hearts through faith as you are being rooted and established in love.

People: May we have the power, together with the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge.

Leader: May you be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

People: To him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to the power that is at work within us,

Leader: To God be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever!

All: Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

You have given us more than enough for our needs, and still more to share, yet we fear insufficiency, and believe in scarcity, not abundance. Never content with what we have or who we are, we want always to be more and to have more. Seeking to fill ourselves, nothing we consume seems to satisfy us. We treat even grace as a commodity.

Losing ourselves in our attachments, we create idols of virtually everything. Like those who first flocked around Him, we are tempted to turn even Jesus into an idol of security, an always reliable source of predictable blessing.

Turn us around and free us for life.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory—forever. Amen

A Note about Today's Third Hymn

The hymn, "Where Is Bread?" is the work of Presbyterian pastor and hymn writer Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, and is used with limited permission. Carolyn is the author of Gifts of Love: New Hymns for Today's Worship (Louisville: Geneva Press, 2000) and Songs of Grace: New Hymns for God and Neighbor (Nashville, Discipleship Resources, 2009).

Welcome Jillian Walsh

Our guest musician this morning is Jillian Walsh of Lake Ronkonkoma. Jillian is the daughter of Amy and Dan Walsh, sister of Mikey, and granddaughter of Angie and Bill Morris.

Jillian will be entering 7th grade in the fall. She has been playing cello in school and studying privately for the past three years and has made great strides in her musicianship. At school she has been the principal cellist for all three years. She auditioned for NYSSMA the last two years and received perfect scores; the only member of her Samoset Middle School Orchestra to do so. She was chosen to play in the Elementary Music Festival for all of the Sachem School District. In June she performed at the Music in the Parks Festival in Hershey Park, PA with the Select Orchestra, helping her Samoset Middle School win first place for their division.

This is the "last week" for Bill Morris to be filling in at the organ. He has been subbing for the past several years during August at St John's Episcopal Church, Cold Spring Harbor. During his "absence," Angie and/or his son, Brian will be supplying music. Continue to pray that the church will find a permanent music director.

For the past year, your Deacons have been distributing food from the Food Pantry by pre-packaging food items in paper grocery bags. Our supply of paper grocery bags has run out. If you use paper grocery bags when you shop and have some to spare, the Deacons would be grateful.. They can be left in the food collection box by the church office. Thank you
