PRAYER OF INVOCATION

Elder Diane Kirchhoff

Almighty God, the wind cannot contain you, nor the fires consume you. You are majestic and incomprehensible. Yours is the still quiet voice, the sound of faint silence amidst all the screeching voices both outside us and within. Come to us now, and restore us to our right minds so that we may sit at the feet of Jesus and go from there to declare all that You have done for us.

All: Deep calls out to deep! Let us worship God!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

God, our help and hope in every time of life: we bow before You in distress and confusion about the devastation and death that seem to rule your world today. We know not where to turn, nor even how to pray. Remind us of your presence with Jesus in his hours of agony, in the face of abandonment by many whom he trusted in the pain of crucifixion, and even in death itself. Enable us to know that you do not desert us, but in times of need stand even closer than before. Remind us that it may be Friday now, but in your Providence Sunday's coming, and your love will see us through every darkness, every doubt, every desolation. You alone can restore us to our right minds. For you, O God, are our hope and our strength, an ever-present help in time of trouble; to You we pray through Jesus Christ who triumphs over all things. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory—forever. Amen
